CONGRATULATIONS!

First of all, I would like to give you a warm welcome and say a big 'Thank You!' for investing in this program.

I am sure you will be delighted with what I have to offer, what you are about to learn will put you ahead of most traders who get caught up with the wrong ideas and incorrect beliefs.

Dow Scalping members area is both educational and fun to use, you will find here videos and downloads along with numerous real-life examples, and even process maps... all of which will help you cut down your learning curve making it simple and fun.

To give yourself every chance of making a success with the use of my program please don't forget to drop the old baggage behind you. You are now embarking upon a new journey, a journey that will take you to the next level in financial trading, this is where you will be making money within minutes and have the freedom to spend quality time with your family and friends or doing the things that you love.

I hope you are as excited as I am making this information available to you, the knowledge contained herein is all you need to make yourself a success in financial trading and in life, to finally be able to no longer relate time=money, but time=fun and a quality life.

Please go through this entire program at your own pace, do not hurry through the topics or the videos. Everything you will find here is there for a reason, regardless of your previous experience please go through everything from start to finish.

In order to make sure that you understand everything, it is advisable to review the member's area atleast once every week to make the new concepts and ideas sink into and get registered into your brain with repeated viewing.

There will also be new updates added to the program so make sure to keep your login/password safe.

The following letter is dedicated to all members especially those who have lost a small fortune and much worse the time they have spent trying to make this work, be it trading forex, stocks, futures, commodities or any other, this is for you!

'I KNOW HOW YOU FEEL'

I know how you feel, I know your pain, the pain that runs throughout your day and keeps you awake during the night. At times you may even feel like giving up, but then you think of the lost time you invested in your dreams, to never give up and get there one day, you started your journey and have made it thus far, for all you know you may well be just a step away from all that you desire, so stay put and don't lose faith.

I know how you feel about the lost sums of money, that once belonged to you which could have been used for another purpose, but only if you could have a second chance you would not let it get away from you, if only your eyes weren't blinded by greed you would not do the same mistake again, and if only time could go back you would not allow what was yours to be taken away, the money that could have been used for a better purpose but which slipped away, stay put my friend and don't lose faith.

I know how you feel but you are only a step away, from the success you deserve and desire, because you have yet to experience it for yourself, to believe and carry on with dedication and keep moving towards your destination, for the journey may be tough along with the pain that comes with striving towards your goal, I know it can be strong and push you back leaving you hopeless, fearful and down, perhaps the last time you tried it didn't work, but have faith in yourself my friend you are here.

I know your pain because I was here before you, I have experienced it first hand and it wasn't easy to let go. I haven't forgotten and perhaps never will, but I learnt many lessons along the way and stood up every time, because I had a dream and I could see the light at the end of the tunnel, you must take the first step which follows within, to see this light from the experiences that you've had, just as I did.

It wasn't easy for me nor it will be for you, this journey is not for the weak but you must remain strong, if only you realise and drop the old baggage of luggage that you have been carrying with you all along, the weight on your back and your shoulders which has slowed you down, you must let your pre-conceived beliefs and ideas go, the pain that you've had you must forgive, the past is gone and the future is ahead, so stand strong today with knowledge and courage, and move forward towards your goal, and you will see the light at the end of the tunnel just as I did.

My good friend, I enclose with this letter a map that will shorten your journey and take you towards all that you desire, but you have to make that decision because the directions you have to follow require faith within, you have come thus far so know that you are nearly there, if only you read my message in this letter and take my hand, but you must remember to drop the old baggage that you carry on your back, the baggage that has slowed you down it's time for it to go, for this journey maybe old but the path is new and all you need I have enclosed here in for you.

So let's begin Module 1 ==>

With Best Wishes,
